CURRICULUM

DIS provides a holistic international standards-based curriculum, striving to combine best research and practices from around the world, and employing school leaders with a wealth of knowledge and experience with international schools.

The school curriculum addresses not only academic content and skills standards, but concept-based learning, learning for understanding (creative and critical thinking), and students' ability to transfer knowledge to real life application.

The Daniel International School K-12 academic programs offer some of the best international school experiences in Thailand and all of Asia.

The school program and curricular design has been established in partnership with Gyeonggi Suwon International School (www.gsis.sc.kr) and Taejon Christian International School (www.tcis.or.kr).

DIS has taken the best practices and standards from these schools and adapted them for our students in Thailand to guarantee best practice in international education at DIS.

The Student Learner Outcomes (SLOs) unpack the Mission to describe how each student will grow and develop.
